My dear Sir,

I am sorry you could not come here for the Opening Ceremony of the Tuberculosis Sanatorium this morning, and much more so for the reasonof your abasence. Of course, you could not possibly come away leaving Mrs. Raghavendra Rao in that state of health. I hope she will get over her present trouble soon. I have submitted your letter to His Highness who was very sorry to hear of Mrs. Raghavendra Rao's unsatisfactory state of health.

I regret I found it impossible to look you up in Bangalore, but I am going there again for a day or two next week and I shall try to see you.

Yours sincerely,

Rajamantrapravina

To

R. Raghavendra Rao, Esq.,
Bangalore.
